

Terms of Service

Credits

Once your new design has been installed to your blog, you agree to keep the links crediting Tech·mom·ogy Designs & designers of templates used on your blog until you remove the design from your blog in its entirety. You are welcome to move the credits around, but they must remain on your blog until you are finished with the design.

Payment

Payment on all custom orders is due upfront. Final invoice will be sent once design package has been agreed upon via email & provided questionnaire. Payment should be sent to nicole@voilacustoms.com through PayPal. Any questions or concerns should be directed to nicole@techmomogy.com.

Portfolio Use

A screenshot of your blog or picture of the header and/or blog button designed for you will be placed in our portfolio and will link to your blog so that others can see examples of our work. If you would prefer to not be included, please let us know.

Waiting List

This list has been created to help us keep orders straight and to help you know when work on your blog design will begin. The list is created on a first come/pay, first served basis according to the time in which your full payment is made. Your name will be placed on the list immediately after we receive your payment. If you fail to submit payment, your name will remain in the "orders on hold" section of the list until payment has been made.

Widgets

We strongly suggest you save a back up of your blog template before work on your design has begun just in case widgets are unable to be recovered on our end. Tech·mom·ogy Designs is not responsible for anything lost due to your failure to backup your template.

Altering

Once your Tech·mom·ogy Designs layout has been installed to your blog, you agree not to edit, alter, or share our designs and templates (including the HTML) with anyone for any reason or claim them as your own. Using our designs and templates (including HTML) in a manipulated form or in their entirety to produce profit in anyway is not permitted. You will be free to add or remove sidebar widgets (ie: pictures, music, link lists, etc.) and will be able to post as usual after we install, but any altering of the specific items we have designed or coded is prohibited.

Revisions

We want you to be pleased with your design and are happy to make any reasonable number of revisions free of charge until you are 100% satisfied with your design.

Refunds

Due to the unique nature of blog design, Tech·mom·ogy Designs does not offer refunds on designs already begun. If you have been placed on the waiting list and change your mind after you have sent payment, we will gladly send a refund minus the cost of the PayPal fee.

Browsers

We use Firefox and recommend that our clients do as well. Designs and content may vary from browser to browser.

If you agree to the above terms of service, simply email nicole@techmomogy.com for your final invoice and then send the invoiced payment amount to nicole@voilacustoms.com via PayPal (www.paypal.com).
